ORDER AMENDING INDIANA PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES

Under the authority vested in this Court to provide by rule for the procedure employed in all courts of this state and this Court's inherent authority to supervise the administration of all courts of this state, Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines Section I.(E)(4) is amended to read as follows (deletions shown by ~~striking~~ and new text shown by underlining):

INDIANA PARENTING TIME GUIDELINES

SECTION I. GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO PARENTING TIME

...

4. Relocation. When either parent or other person who has custody or parenting time considers a change of residence, a 90 day reasonable advance notice of the intent to move must shall be provided to the other parent or personso they can discuss necessary changes in the parenting schedule as well as the allocation of transportation costs in exercising parenting time which may result from the move.

Commentary

1. Impact Of Move. Parents should recognize the impact that a change of residence may have on a child and on the established parenting time. The welfare of the child should be a priority in making the decision to move.

2. Indiana Law. Indiana law (~~Ind. Code § 31-14-13-10 and Ind. Code § 31-17-2.2-3~~) requires all individuals who have (or who are seeking) child custody or parenting time, and who intend to relocate their residence to provide Notice to an individual who has (or is seeking) child custody, parenting time or grandparent visitation. The Notice must be made by registered or certified mail not later than 90 days before the individual intends to move. The relocating party's Notice must provide certain specified and detailed information about the move. This information includes: the new address; new phone numbers; the date of the proposed move; a stated reason for the move; a proposed new parenting time schedule; and must include certain statements regarding the rights of the non-relocating party. The Notice must also be filed with the Court. The notice is required for all proposed moves by custodial and non custodial parents in all cases when the proposed move involves a change of the primary residence for a period of at least sixty (60) days. This is true even when a person plans to move across the street or across town, and when a party plans on moving across the state or the country, or to another country that if a custodial parent intends to move outside Indiana, or more than one hundred (100) miles from the individual's county of residence, a notice of intent to move must be filed with the clerk of the court that issued the custody order, and a copy of the notice must be sent to the other parent.

This amendment shall take effect immediately.
